VOICES OF ANIMALS.

There is a chapter in the natural history of animals that has hardly been touched upon as yet, and that will be especially interesting with reference to families, or take as an example the webfooted family. The voices of animals have a family character not to be mistaken. All the canine bark and bowl. The fox, the wolf, the dog have the same kind of utterance, though on a somewhat different pitch. All the bears growl, from the white bear of the Arctic snows to the small black bear of the Andes. All the cats mew, from our quiet fireside companions to the lions and tigers, and panthers of the forest and jungle. This last may seem a strange assertion; but to any one who has listened critically to their sounds and analyzed their voices, the roar of the lion is but a gigantic mew, bearing about the same proportion to that of a cat as its stately and majestic form does to the smaller, softer, and more peaceful aspect of the cat. Yet, notwithstanding the difference in their size, who can look at the lion, whether in his more sleepy mood, as he lies curled up in the corner of his cage, or in his fiercer moments of hunger and rage, without being reminded of a cat? And this is not merely the resemblance of one carnivorous animal to another, for no one was ever reminded of a dog or a wolf by a lion. Again, all the horses and donkeys neigh; for the bray of the donkey is only a harsher neigh pitched on a higher key, it is true, but a sound of the same character, as the donkey himself is but a clumsy and dwarfish horse. All the cows low, from the Buffalo roaming the prairie, the musk ox of the Arctic ice fields, or the yack of Asia, to the cattle feeding in our pastures.

Among the birds this similarity of voice in families is still more marked. We need only recall the harsh and noisy parrots, so similar in their peculiar utterance. Do not all the geese and the innumerable host of ducks quack? Does not every member of the crow family caw, whether it be the magpie, the rook, in some green rookery of the old world, or the crow of our woods, with its long melancholy caw, that seems to make the silence and solitude deeper. Compare all the sweet warblers of the songster family—the nightingales, the thrushes, the mocking birds, the robbins—they differ in the greater or less perfection of the note, but the same kind of voice runs through the whole group.—AGASSIZ.

Daniel Webster, though dead, "still lives," and speaks to us in powerful language.

In times of treason and rebellion, it is well, frequently, to recall the sage counsel and heed the profound admonitions of the great statesmen, who, in their day, exerted all their energies to avert the direful state of national affairs in the midst of which we are at the present time. We make the following eloquent extract from the speech of Daniel Webster, delivered in the U. S. Senate, in January, 1830, in reply to Mr. Hayne, of South Carolina:—

"But, sir, although there are fears, there are hopes also. The people have preserved this, their own constitution, for forty years, and have seen their happiness, prosperity, and renown, grow with its growth, and strengthen with its strength. They are now, generally, strongly attached to it. Overthrown by direct assault, it cannot be; evaded, undermined, NULLIFIED, it will not be, if we, and those who shall succeed me here, as agents and representatives of the people, shall conscientiously and vigilantly discharge the two great branches of our public trust—faithfully to preserve, and wisely to administer it.

Mr. President, I have thus stated the reasons of my dissent to the doctrines which have been advanced and maintained. I am conscious of having detained you and the Senate much too long. I was drawn into the debate, with no previous deliberation such as is suited to the discussion of so grave and important a subject. But it is a subject of which my heart is full, and I have not been willing to suppress the utterance of its spontaneous sentiments. I cannot, even now, persuade myself to relinquish it, without expressing, once more, my deep conviction, that, since it respects nothing less than the union of the States, it is of most vital and essential importance to the public happiness. I profess, sir, in my career, hitherto, to have kept steadily in view the prosperity and honor of the whole country, and the preservation of our federal union. It is to that union we owe our safety at home, and our consideration and dignity abroad. It is to that union that we are chiefly indebted for whatever makes us most proud of our country. That union we reached only by the discipline of our virtues in the severe school of adversity. It had its origin in the necessities of disordered finance, prostrate commerce, and ruined credit. Under its benign influence, these great interests immediately awoke, as from the dead, and sprang forth with newness of life. Every year of its duration has teemed with fresh proofs of its utility and its blessings; and, although our territory has stretched out wider and wider, and our population spread farther and farther, they have not outrun its protection or its benefits. It has been to us all a copious fountain of national, social, and personal happiness. I have not allowed myself, sir, to look beyond the union, to see what might be hidden in the dark recess behind. I have not coolly weighed the chances of preserving liberty when the bonds that unite us together shall be broken asunder. I have not accustomed myself to hang over the precipice of disunion, to see whether with my short sight, I can fathom the depth of the abyss below; nor could I regard him as a safe counsellor in the affairs of this Government, whose thoughts should be mainly bent on considering, not how the union should be best preserved, but how tolerable might be the condition of the people when it shall be broken up and destroyed.—While the union lasts, we have, exciting, gratifying prospects spread out before us, for us and our children. Beyond that I seek not to penetrate the veil. God grant, that in my day, at least, that curtain may not rise, God grant, that on my vision never may be opened what lies behind. When my eyes shall be turned to behold, for the last time, the sun in heaven, may I not see him shining on the broken and dishonored fragments of a once glorious union; on States disevered, discordant, belligerent; on a land rent with civil feuds, or drenched, it may be, in fraternal blood. Let their last feeble and lingering glance, rather behold the gorgeous ensign of the republic, now known and honored throughout the earth, still full high advanced, its arms and trophies streaming in their original lustre, not a stripe erased or polluted, nor a single star obscured—bearing for its motto no such miserable interrogatory as What is all this worth? nor those other words of delusion and folly. Liberty first, and Union afterward—but everywhere, spread all over in characters of light, blazing on all its ample folds, as they float over the sea and over the land, and in every wind under the whole heavens, that other sentiment, dear to every American heart—"Liberty and Union now and forever one and inseparable."

The Vicksburg Canals.—In connection with the news from the Yazoo, demonstrating the success of one of General Grant's canals, the following from the Memphis correspondence of the Philadelphia Inquirer will be of interest:

"All the canals are now pronounced successful, notwithstanding the sage prediction of a rebel newspaper that the Yankees would fail in the Williams canal, because they would not dig deep enough to cut through the strata of blue clay found beneath the subsoil. It would appear from recent accounts that even that ditch may yet be of some service to us. It seems the Yankees did dig through the clay, struck the quicksand under it, and as soon as the dam shall be removed from the upper mouth of the canal, the river, now upon the rampage, will rush through it with great force and quickly make a channel large enough and deep enough to float our heaviest gunboats, and what are we to do next? Vicksburg may surrender or hold out, if she can after this. We can afford to let her rave. But she cannot much longer hold out.

"Yet, the rebels may, through some imperfect management—some loophole unknown and unprovided by our forces—be able to evacuate the place, as they did Corinth, and thus evade capture and destruction. This now seems to be General Grant's only fear, and I am positive that, should the Confederates succeed in accomplishing the manœuvre, they are still in almost as bad a predicament as before. Where are they to get supplies? Where are they to go? The conclusion, to me, is clear, seems inevitable. They must surrender or starve."

St. Patrick's Day in Newport.

We were unable to present to our readers a somewhat lengthy report of the proceedings at St. Mary's (catholic) church on Tuesday, which was prepared for our yesterday's issue, but we herewith give a synopsis of Bishop McFarland's discourse, which will be read with interest notwithstanding its late appearance in our columns:

Text.—St. John 15 ch. 16v.

MY DEAR BRETHREN:—We are assembled to do honor to one who was chosen and called by God to produce fruit, and whose fruit remains, to commemorate the illustrious virtues and indefatigable zeal of Ireland's Patron Saint and glorious apostle St. Patrick. He was born more probably in Armoric Gaul Sur Mer about the year 377. He was taken prisoner by Niall, of the Nine Hostages, and carried with many others as slaves into Ireland. For six years he served as an herdsman on the mountains of Antrim. Though educated by his parents, Calphurnius and Conchessa, according to the precepts of rigid virtue, it was particularly during six years of bondage that Patrick more earnestly devoted his heart to God. Everything connected with his degrading position tending to divert his mind to this. The great canopy of Heaven over his head, the lofty mountains on his side, the extended valleys before him, the grandeur of the scenery around him, all united to make him love Him who created them.

After six years captivity, Patrick found means to escape. His return to his friends with the brightest prospects before him, could not make him forget the religion that consoled him in the days of his servitude, and his greatest ambition and desire was to be the chosen instrument in the hands of God to carry that religion to the land of his suffering. Several visions had taught him that God intended him for that object so dear to his heart; and to qualify himself for that great task, he entered the College of his maternal uncle, St. Martin, of Tours, where he spent four years. He was soon after ordained Priest, whose duties he faithfully and zealously discharged for some years, when he was appointed by Celestine, the then reigning Pontiff, the coadjutor of Pelagius, to carry the faith to Pagan Ireland. Pelagius dying on his way through Gaul, Patrick was consecrated Bishop for Ireland, and thither immediately set out in company with some pious Priests. He landed on the shores of Wicklow about the year 456. From here he traveled over the whole island, everywhere preaching and making converts, thousands of whom he baptized with his own hands. In one of these journies he reached Tara, where he preached with great success to the assembled chiefs of the nation. Everywhere he went institutions of learning and religion sprang up, so that Ireland for three centuries afterwards became the mart of sacred and even profane learning for the continent of Europe. The great Alfred of England, spent some years in her schools. Charlemagne held correspondence with many of her distinguished professors about the best method of promoting education in his kingdom. Ireland's sons spread religion throughout England, Scotland, Wales, in Gaul, Belgium, Germany, and even in Italy. They held distinguished seats in the halls of learning on the continent, and largely contributed to the foundation of the two first Universities of the world, Paris and Pavia.—Ireland, the Prelate continued, enjoyed peace and her religion till the Danes or Eastmen towards the close of the eighth century invaded her soil. He spoke of the sufferings of the people from those barbarians for upwards of two centuries when they were finally overcome by Brian Boroimhe at the battle of Clontarf and brought into subjection to wholesome laws made by him. He then dwelt upon the troubles brought upon the country by McMorrough, who was forced to fly to England to escape the just indignation of his country on account of his scandalous crimes. His first object in England was to obtain permission from Henry to raise an army to regain his lost dominions in which he was successful. This army under Strongbow gained some advantages which Henry was not slow to claim for himself, and thus England got the first foothold on Ireland soil. For the three following centuries Ireland suffered persecution at the hands of England. Cromwell's cruelty and barbarity are unparalleled in the history of any Christian country. He put thousands to death, sparing neither age nor sex, and he gave as an instance the massacre on the island of McGee where three thousand persons were put to the sword by his orders. The preacher then drew a vivid picture of the persecution of the Irish under Elizabeth, Edward, &c., showing the perfidy, treachery and unrelenting cruelty of England towards the sister Isle. Whole garrisons that surrendered were indiscriminately put to death as soon as they laid down their arms. The best Generals fell either by the dagger or the poisoned cup. All these persecutions, he said, were directed against the faith and religion of Ireland, and strange to say, that people never sought revenge, when they had it in their power, as under Mary, and from 1621 to 1641. A line was laid on the head of a schoolmaster, Priest and Bishop, as is done in this country upon the heads of wolves.—If any member of the family became a Protestant, the paternal estate at once became his, no matter how bad he was, and the father was only a tenant at will. The murder of an Irishman or woman by one of the Pale was a crime too small to come before the Courts of Justice. Thus, he continued, the Irish people suffered the loss of everything, property, honor and life itself, for righteousness sake. Here are the worthy fruits of St. Patrick's preaching, and they remain to this day. In whatever country you find Irishmen you will find them clinging to the faith of their apostle. The worthy Prelate concluded by a brief and happy address to the societies, exhorting them to educate themselves and their children to the best of their power, and to adhere to the faith of Patrick.

The General Assembly.

To the Editor of The News:—Will you be so good as to complete your record of the Senate's proceedings in the matter of Charles T. Hazard's petition. In your issue of Saturday March 7th, you give a report of a part of the proceedings of the Senate only omitting the final vote. In your next issue you do not continue the report of the Senates proceedings at all but pass over to that of the House. Charles T. Hazard's memorial was under consideration in the Senate for several weeks and a resolution granting him a new trial finally passed that body by the following emphatic votes.

Ayes, Arnold, Butler, Church, of Little Compton, Darfee, Davis, Evans, Lanis, Greene, Hill, Jenckes, Potter, Peckham, Reynolds, Sweet, Sherman, Stanton, Sisson, Young 16.

Noes, Barbour, Church of Bristol, Cooke of Warren, Cooke of Cumberland, Mathewson, Pendleton, Ross, Watson 8, and six members only were absent, two of whom would have voted aye. Three no, and one doubtful.

IMPORTANT TO SOLDIERS.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen, that soldiers discharged for disability, can in a few days procure the $100 bounty by calling on Dr. Wood.—Also, an arrangement has been affected by the state, so that persons unable to pay for their papers can have them witout expense, by calling at the same place, during office hours.

MR. FLETCHER'S SECOND LECTURE, "Up and down the Amazon," will be delivered at the Aquidneck Hall, this evening at half past seven o'clock.

COMMUNICATION FROM THOMAS R. HAZARD ESQ.—The following articles explains itself. ED. NEWS.

To the Editor of the News:—Will you be so good as to publish the following communication in your paper. And Oblige Yours

T. R. H.

To the Editors of the Providence Journal, the Evening Press and the Providence Post:

WHILST the memorial of Charles T. Hazard was on its passage in the Senate, a question of veracity between Mr. Cooke of Warren and the Special Committee appointed by the Senate in that case, was raised by Mr. Cooke's charging that the Committee had stated in its report that the Counsel of Mr. Ives had whilst before the Committee conceded the legality of the notice, which Mr. Cooke charged was not the fact. This being a serious charge against a Committee of the General Assembly, acting under oath, Mr. Davis, Chairman of the Committee, moved that a Special Committee, be appointed by the Senate to examine into the matter and report the real facts to the Senate, who would thereby as well as the constituent of members be both able to determine whether the Committee had or had not stated the truth in their report.

The motion was agreed to and Messrs Potter, Sweet and Church were appointed Committee, who it seems made a written report to the Senate on the last day of the Session. I have not been able to find anything in relation to this report being made at all in the "Journals" reports of Senate proceedings, whilst in the Press and Post, the record merely states that Mr. Potter made a report in the matter which was received and placed on file.

Now as it is highly important to the cause of morality at least if not to that of public justice, that the people of Rhode Island should be informed, whether or not they do appoint members to the Conservative branch of their General Assembly who as Committees make false reports to that body, or who as members make false charges against Committees, the subscriber for one would be glad, if the three Journals to whom this communication is addressed, would either give in full the report of the Committee alluded to or at least let their readers known its import.

THOMAS R. HAZARD.

State Items.

The Democratic State Central Committee, who by vote of the Convention on Tuesday last were empowered to fill any vacancies that may occur in the State ticket held a meeting at the office of the Post to-day which was largely attended, and harmonious in spirit. So far as the candidate for Governor was concerned, we learn that the feeling was unanimous in favor of the nomination of William C. Cozzens of Newport.

There was also a unanimous expression of feeling in favor of the nomination of Hon. Henry Butler of Warwick, as candidate for the office of Lieut. Governor.—Pres.

The Democratic State Committee have formally tendered to William C. Cozzens and Henry Butler the nomination for the offices of Governor and Lt. Governor.

At a Meeting of the Executive Council of the Adopted Citizens, held at Armory Hall, March 17 Michael J. Brennan in the chair, and Joseph Graves being Secretary. Charles S. Bradley, of North Providence, was nominated as candidate for Congress from the Eastern District.

At a subsequent meeting Messrs. Michael J. Brennan, James Murphy, Joseph Graves and John D. Murphy were chosen a Committee in conjunction with the Committee appointed by the Democratic District Convention to wait on Mr. Bradley and request his acceptance.

He is accordingly authorized and required to perform all the duties of Provost Marshal General set forth in the said act, and such other duties as may properly pertain to his office.

By Order of the Secretary of War.

Proclamation by Gov. Cannon of Delaware.—Governor Cannon of Delaware, has just issued an important proclamation on the subject of illegal arrests, ignoring State rights altogether and placing the Federal above them. The proclamation is called forth by the passage of an act in the Assembly to prevent illegal arrests in the State, and the Governor says:—

"I enjoin upon the good people of this State that they hold true allegiance to the Governor of the United States as paramount to the State of Delaware, and that they obey the constitutional authorities thereof before the Legislature of the State of Delaware, or any other human authority whatsoever."

In Gov. Cannon's special message to the Legislature previous to the issue of his proclamation, he says:—

"Invested by the Constitution with no power of veto or review of the action of the Legislature, the Governor has a general control over the operation of criminal enactments, and such control I will exercise to the utmost extent to protect any person acting under the authority of the President of the United States or any citizens aiding such persons, in bringing to light any conspiracy or in arresting any one guilty of disloyal practices or of treasonable designs against the Government."

Political.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce says that before parting from each other on the 4th of March, the re-elected Republican members of Congress agreed that their candidate for Speaker, in December next, should be the Hon. Schuyler Colfax.

The Manchester American says it has heard but two names mentioned in connection with the Presidency of the next New Hampshire Senate, viz: Hon. Isaac W. Smith of that city, and Hon. Daniel Blaisdell of Hanover.

At a Union convention in Lexington, Ky., the platform of the hot-and-cold Unionists, adopted by the Louisville Democrat, was kicked over by a vote of three to one. Although endorsed by the Secretary of State, Wickliffe, and Speaker Buckner, the people promptly tabled them as not expressing the sentiments of the Union men of the country.

At a meeting of the people of Fayette county, Ky., on the 9th instant, to elect delegates to the State Union Convention, an effort was made by the rebel sympathizers to force through a series of resolutions condemning the Emancipation Proclamation, and naming as delegates certain persons never known as Union men. The meeting, however, promptly rejected this programme, and proceeded to appoint as delegates unconditional supporters of the government.

A Betrothal Banquet.—The latest bit of our up-town fashionable news is the exceeding sumptuousness of two success-ive dinner parties, given to two betrothed ladies by a wealthy bachelor of their acquaintance—each party numbering about twenty persons, and the latter one including Gen. and Mrs. McClellan among its guests. One very expensive and exquisite difference from ordinary parties consisted in the novel furnishing of the table. It was oval-shaped, but with the white cloth only circling its outer rim—the whole interior being an exquisitely arranged parterre, filled with baskets of the most costly and sumptuous flowers, set in wet sawdust and moss, and the air being thus laden with fragrance, while the dinner was handed round, in a dainty succession of choice dishes, according to the beautifully printed carte distributed to all. At the close of the dinner, each lady guest took (as a present from the host) one of these costly and superb baskets of flowers which had ornamented the centre of the table; the beautiful burthen of the banquet being thus borne away by the most admired of the admiring beholders!—Home Journal.

The Copperhead Treason in Indiana.—The Indianapolis (Ind.) Journal boldly charges upon the Copperhead members of the Legislature a virtual invitation to Kentucky guerillas to invade the State. A plot to the following effect was said to be hatched: First, the cavalry were to be withdrawn; then the Legion was to be disarmed, and the arms carried off and placed under the control of the Attorney General and Company; and thus all the military force would be removed by which the incursions of the Kentucky rebels could be repelled and the people would be left helpless before their enemies. It is, moreover charged that there was an understanding between the invaders and the betrayers by which the latter were to be exempt from pillage—the robbery, murder, &c., to be exclusively inflicted upon loyal citizens.

The Journal gives "facts and figures" to substantiate its charges—and some of them are ugly enough, too.

TWO AND A HALF O'CLOCK.

THE PORT HUDSON REPORT.

NEW YORK, March 19.

A special to the Times says Gen. Dix has given the War Department the Port Hudson report with a slight variation. He finds it in the Richmond papers of the 16th and the affair is said to have occurred on the 15th. The Mississippi was sunk while another vessel, the name of which is not stated, succeeded in passing the batteries and is now between Port Hudson and Vicksburg.

ANOTHER BATTLE ON THE BLACKWATER.

NEW YORK, March 19.

A very spirited battle took place on the Blackwater on Tuesday morning. General Peck dispatched the 14th Penna. Cavalry and two sections of the 7th Mass. Battery to attack the enemy's entrenchments commanded by General Jenkins of South Carolina, opposite Franklin.

The fight commenced at 9 o'clock a. m. and was continued briskly for an hour. Two separate cavalry charges were made on the fortifications. These were found to be literally lined with infantry who poured a deadly fire into our ranks wounding many in the first charge, which was made by Major Stratton, who was wounded in the shoulder. The second charge was conducted by Major Conney who led his men up to the fortification to try and gain the ditch but the move was soon found to be impracticable.

The enemy opposed a heavy force of infantry and Cavalry to the right and left of our position in order to try and outflank our troops, but without success. The fight had not ended when our correspondent left the field, the enemys reinforcements were coming up to defend the pass.

The foregoing is from the Herald which states that only a few were wounded and they were all in the Pa. Cavalry.

CASUALTIES.

NEW YORK, March 19.

The World's special gives the following casualties in the fight at Kelley's ford: Major Chamberlain, Chief of Staff, seriously wounded, in face. Adjutant Bourditch, 1st Mass., severly wounded. Lieut. Downing, 6th N. Y., mortally. Lieut. Cook, 1st Rhode Island killed. Lieut. Thompson 1st Rhode Island slightly wounded. Maj. Farrington 1st R. I., slightly wounded. Captain Terrichle, 3d Pa., slightly. Lieut. Wolf 6th Ohio, slightly. Captain McBride 4th Pa., severly. Privates: Bernard and Murray of Co D wounded in the arm; H. R. Jordan Co G left leg; Geo. Snow Co. D hip; J. W. Vincent Co. E leg. All Rhode Island privates. Richards, Paxton 6th N. Y. Independent Battery killed.

REBEL NAVAL ATTACK EXPECTED.

NEW YORK, March 19.

It has been ascertained by deserters from the rebels who came off to our fleet from Mobile a few days since that an attempt was made by Admiral Buchanan with four steamers and a ram about four weeks ago to attack our vessels at Midewatch which was only prevented by one of his vessels running on a snag. The attempt however is to be again made and we trust that our fleet being now forewarned will be ready for the emergency. Five rebel gunboats are being constructed at Selma, Ala., two of which are now on their way to Mobile.

PIRATICAL ATTACK CONTEMPLATED,

NEW YORK March 19.

The Tribune learns from Havana that arrangements have been made for a meeting of the pirates Alabama, Florida and Harriet Lane with a view to a combined attack on the steamer from Aspinwall with California gold.

A TRAP FOR THE FLORIDA.

The steam gunboat Huntress at Key West reports that an American bark being about to leave Martinique, where the Pirate Florida was lying the authorities compelled the latter to remain in port twenty-four hours after the departure of the bark. The American crowded his vessel to St. Thomas where he found Admiral Wilkes. The Admiral transferred his flag to the Vanderbilt and started for Martinique with a fair prospect of reaching the Island before the Florida could leave.

WASHINGTON SPECIALS.

Gen. Burnside leaves to-day for his command. It is intimated that Gen. Sigel has withdrawn his resignation. While posting pickets Tuesday night at Hexdon's Station near Drainesville, Major Weels and Capt. Redfield of the 1st U. S. Cavalry and three or four privates were captured by the rebels. Gens. Ord and Schoepf have been relieved from duty on the Buell Court of Inquiry, the other members will finish the case. Gen. Buford's pocket was picked of 1000 dollars in Washington on Wednesday.

U. S. Treasurer Spinner gives notice that he will hereafter allow five per cent on all deposits made in the Treasury. It has heretofore been four.

Gold has gone to four hundred in Richmond and transactions are reported there as high as six hundred per cent.

At the steeple chase of the Irish Brigade yesterday a serious accident occurred: Dr. Paxon surgeon of the 9th Mass., and the Quartermaster of the same regiment while riding at top speed towards each other, in attempting to pass turned in the same direction and a collision ensued in which both horses were killed and both officers thrown thirty feet in the air and seriously, probably fatally injured.

FIGHT AT KELLEY'S FORD

GALLANTRY OF THE R. I. CAVALRY.

NEW YORK, March 19.

The Tribune special gives an account of the fight at Kelleys Ford, of which the following is extracts: During the night the force under Lt. Col. Curtis of the 1st Mass Cavalry was detailed to advance toward the Railroad at Brealeton Station and to Elk Run in the direction of Warrenton.—At 3 p. m. the forces advanced: Col. Curtis as above indicated and Gen. Averill with the main force towards Kelley's ford. Arriving at the ford shortly after daylight the advance guard found it well defended by dismounted cavalry, sharpshooters concealed in houses and behind trees and fences. The approaches on both sides were rendered impassable by a strong abattis with water over four feet deep.

After several attempts to cross under the hot fire, a platoon from the First Rhode Island Cavalry led by Lt. Brown dashed into the stream followed by sixteen who soon removed the abattis. The gallant fellows were met by volleys of bullets but so sudden and surprising was the movement that twenty-five rebels were captured. The force immediately followed and artillery was taken over with the ammunition in the feed bags of the horses which were carried by the cavalry and repeated on the other side.

After halting and resting a short time Gen. Averill ordered a column forward and had proceeded but a mile or two when Fitz Hugh Lees whole brigade were discovered advancing in vigorous style. Our men were immediately brought into position supported by a battery which opened at once, while the main body were formed for a charge. Our men had the advantage of being partly in woods while the enemy had to cross a clear field between the two. Advancing out of this, both forces appeared in the open simultaneously, the enemy advancing rapidly on our right with the intention of turning that flank and on our left with the purpose to charge it. Both movements were anticipated. On our right they were speedily repulsed by Artillery and on our left by a gallant charge under Col. Duffice who led that portion of the brigade.

The rebels stood only a moment, then turned and fled back into the woods in disorder, leaving their killed and wounded on the field. After performing this Gen. Averill again advanced and took up position a mile or more beyond, believing the enemy would again attack if opportunity was offered. This proved true and the rebels soon advanced again, this time with artillery. Their cavalry came up on the charge in admirable style, but they were met by a volley onslaught from the 5th Regulars and 3d Pennsylvania which turned them back in confusion; they retreating down our line by the flank, which enabled our remaining squadron to pour in tremendous volleys from carbines, emptying hundreds of saddles and completely routing the whole charging force. They did not molest us again save with the artillery, to which we did not reply, being out of ammunition. Gen. Averill held his position until sunsetown and then retired to the North side of the river.

The enemy's loss was severe, reaching no doubt two hundred, as their wounded were found everywhere.

Our own loss will not exceed fifty in killed and wounded. It was a square stand up cavalry fight of over four hours duration, and the result proves our cavalry when well led, equal, if not superior, to the enemy's. In every instance, they fled before the impetuous charge of our men.

NEGROES CAPTURED.

NEW YORK, March 19.

Port Royal letters state that a rumor had come per steamer from Fernandina that a force of a thousand negroes, which ascended St. Mary's river met with a severe repulse and had probably been captured. This seems to confirm accounts via Mobile received yesterday.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE

FORTRESS MONROE, March 19.

Last night Lieut. Col. Whipple of the 19th Wisconsin, captured a small boat attempting to run the blockade on Elizabeth river, near Norfolk.—She had about three thousand dollars worth of contraband goods on board. Three of the men were arrested and taken to Norfolk.

The iron clad Keokuk passed down Hampton Roads this morning and returned at 4 o'clock this evening.

The Yorktown Gazette of March 17th, contains the following from Williamsburg: "Yesterday some thirty or forty of the enemy fired upon our pickets stationed in the direction of Richmond. The pickets returned the fire and the enemy beat a hasty retreat. No loss was sustained and all is again quiet. It was probably their purpose to induce our men to pursue them and fall into another ambuscade.

ANOTHER REBEL RAID.

On Saturday last Gen. Fitz Hugh Lee, with about two thousand cavalry and two pieces of artillery, made a hurried advance upon our lines at Gloucester, but hearing of some reinforcements to our forces at this point they retired as rapidly as they came. It is rumored that they had gone for reinforcements, but we are ready for them.

The U. S. sloop-of war Jamaica arrived at 2 o'clock this afternoon from Philadelphia.

LOUISVILLE, March 18.

The Union Democratic Convention, composed of loyal men of all parties, met to-day. The Convention was the largest ever assembled in this State, and composed of the most influential men in Kentucky.

Charles A Marshall was chosen President.

Ex-Governor Wickliff introduced Mr. Cravens, of Indiana, who in the course of his remarks, complained that the Democrats of Indiana had been called copperheads and butternuts, when great confusion occurred, and the speaker was prevented from proceeding. After the restoration of order, the Convention adjourned till to-morrow, when nominations of State officers will be made.

FROM THE YAZOO EXPEDITION AND THE WEST.

CINCINNATI, March 19

Special despatches from Memphis announce that the Yazoo pass expedition had met with a check. On Friday last the gunboat Chillicothe encountered a rebel battery at the junction of the Yazoo Backue and Tallahatchie rivers. The fight lasted all day. One shot from the battery entered a port-hole of the Chillicothe killing four persons and wounding fourteen. The Chillicothe received four shots and was damaged seriously.

The Gazette Indianapolis specials say on the arrival of the Cincinnati train a party of soldiers seized and destroyed a package of Cincinnati Enquirers. Gen. Carrington arrested the soldiers and paid the agent for the copies destroyed.

Osgood and Smith's paper factory at Indianapolis has been destroyed by fire. Loss fifteen thousand dollars in two companies.

Infantry were sent into Mobile county, Ohio yesterday to arrest deserters. It is reported that the citizens have organized to resist them and trouble is anticipated.

IMPORTANT FROM REBELDOM.

FORT MONROE, March 18.

Additional news from the Richmond papers of the 15th.

Fort Pemberton at the mouth of the Tallahatchie River was bombarded on the 13th inst. We have lost some valuable gunners and a few others. Our loss is not heavy.

COLUMBIA, Tenn., March 14.

Four brigades of the enemy under General Rosecrans endeavored to bridge in Van Dorn yesterday, just across Duck River, knowing that he had no means of crossing. But artillery was kept in position and replied to the yankee fire for some hours and then escaped by way of Whites Bridge, 26 miles above. The enemy is greatly surprised and exasperated at Van Dorns escape. They returned to Finch in after burning the houses that Van Dorn had occupied as his headquarters.

CHARLESTON, March 15.

A British steamer reached a confederate port last night loaded with merchandise. She brings Nassau dates. The steamer Ruby from Charleston and Gladiz from Wilmington had arrived safely at Nassau. Many new steamers had reached Nassau from England intending to run the blockade.

A Raleigh despatch states that Gen. D. H. Hill had dispersed a force of Yankees, consisting of four companies of infantry and one of artillery at Deep Gully 8 miles from Newbern. One Yankee and a Buffalo were captured. Gen Hill was moving on Newbern.

Chattanooga dispatch says that a battle is imminent near Tullahoma.

The rebels report the arrival in Charleston harbor of another Monitor iron clad in addition to the fleet already there.

Helena was attacked on the 9th inst. by the rebs. The result is not known.

DR. L. DIX'S
PRIVATE MEDICAL OFFICE,
21 Endicott Street, Boston, Mass.

Is warranted that patients never see or hear each other. Recollect the only address to his Office is No. 21, having no connection with his residence, consequently no family interruption, so that no one can see any person he is at or applying at his office.

DR. DIX

Advertises to find it cannot be counterfeited, except by Quacks, who will do anything, even perjure themselves, to impose upon patients that he engaged in the cure of Special Diseases, a fact as well known to Business Men, Publishers, Merchants, Hotel Proprietors, &c., that he is much recommended, and particularly to STRANGERS AND TRAVELLERS.

To avoid and escape Imposition of Foreign and Native Quacks, who assume names similar to his, or change title.

DR. L. DIX

positively refers to Professors in Responsable Physicians—many of whom consult him in critical cases, because of his acknowledged skill and reputation, founded through long experience, practice and observation.

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE!

Be not robbed and fool to your sufferings in being deceived by the lying boasts, misrepresentations, false promises and pretensions of

who know little of the nature and character of Special Diseases, and care as to their cure. Some exhibit forged Diplomas of Institutions or Colleges which never existed in any part of the world; others exhibit Diplomas of the Dead, have of school, unknown; not only assuming and advertising names of those inserted in the Diplomas, but to further their impositions assume names of other most celebrated Physicians long since dead. Neither be deceived by through false certificates and references, and recommendations of their medicines by the dead, who cannot rise or are remarkable there, or while, besides, to further their imposition, copy from Medical books much that is written of the qualities and effects of different herbs and plants, and ascribe all the same to their Pills, Extracts, Specifics, &c., most of which, if not all, contain Mercury, because of the ancient belief of its "curing everything," but now known to "kill more than it cured," and those not killed, remain miserably injured for life.

IGNORANCE OF ATTACK DOCTORS AND NOSTRUM MAKERS.

Through the ignorance of the Quack Doctor, knowing no other remedy, he relies upon Mercury, and gives it to all his patients in Pills, Drops, &c., so the Nostrum Maker, equally ignorant, adds to his so-called Extracts, Specifics, Antidotes, &c., both relying upon its effects in curing a few in a hundred, it is conjected in various ways throughout the body; but, ALAS! nothing is said of the balance; some of whom die, others grow worse, and are left to linger and suffer for months or years, until relieved or cured, if possible, by competent physicians.

BUT ALL QUACKS ARE NOT IGNORANT.

Notwithstanding the foregoing facts are known to some Quack Doctors and Nostrum Makers, yet, regardless of the life and health of others, there are those among them who will perjure themselves, contradicting giving mercury to their patients, or that it is contained in their Nostrums, so that the "usual fee" may be obtained for "doing only good, or the dollar or "fraction of it" may be obtained for the Nostrum. It is thus that many are deceived also, and uselessly spend large amounts for experiments with quackery.

charges are very moderate. Communications sacredly confidential, and all may rely on him with the strictest secrecy and confidence, whatever may be the disease, condition or situation of any one, married or single.

Medicines.

"SOMETHING NEW!"
GREAT INDIAN REMEDY FOR FEMALES.

Dr. Mattison's Indian Emmenagogue.

This celebrated Female Medicine possessing virtues unknown of anything else of the kind, and proving effectual in all cases where it is designed for both correct and speedy results, and is the only medicine known for the purpose, as it will bring on the most delicate in cases of obstruction, from any cause, and after all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain.

OVER 2000 BOTTLES
have now been sold
without a single failure, when taken as directed, and without the least injury to health in any case. It is put up in bottles of three different strengths, with full directions for using, and sent by express, closely sealed, to all parts of the country.

Prices—full strength, $10; half strength, $5; quarter strength, $3 per bottle.

Remember! This medicine is designed especially for OBSTINATE CASES, which all other remedies of the kind have failed to cure; also that it is warranted as represented IN EVERY RESPECT, or the price will be refunded.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS! None genuine are warranted unless purchased directly of Dr. M., or at office. Accommodations for Ladies Wishing to remain in the city a short time for treatment.

Dr. Mattison's Diuretic Compound,

For Acute and Chronic Diseases,

This new remedy contains neither Balsam, Copaiva, Spirits of Nitre, Cubebs, Turpentine, or any other nauseous drugs, but is an elegant vegetable liquid, pleasant to the taste and smell, grateful to the stomach, cooling, cleansing and healing in its operation and speedily allaying all heat and irritation in the urinary passage. You, therefore, who have been swallowing down Balsam Copaiva, either in capsules or mixtures, for months in succession, until with pale face and disordered stomach your breath and clothes are filled with its vile odor; throw away the disgusting mixtures, and send for a bottle of this New Remedy, which will not only cure you at once, but at the same time it will cleanse the system from the injurious effects of the various mixtures you have been taking so long.

ONE BOTTLE, WITH LITTLE A WEEK, WILL OFTEN EFFECT A PERMANENT CURE.—Price $2.00.

Dr. Mattison's Anti-Syphilitic Syrup,

For Constitutional Syphilis

No remedy ever discovered has done what has been achieved by this. Under its use every form of constitutional syphilitic taint is specifically cured, and in a few weeks the subtile poison is completely eradicated from the system, and health and strength are permanently restored.

It was this remedy that cured in a few weeks a gentleman from the South, then stopping at Newport, and for which he paid Dr. M. with $100 besides his bill, after having been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York for FIVE YEARS.

One bottle, which lasts a month, will often effect a perfect cure. Price, $10; half size, $6.

Dr. Mattison's Nerve Invigorator,

For Nervous Debility, Loss of Power, Impotency, Confusion of Thought, Loss of Memory, Irritable Temper, Gloomy Apprehension, Irregularity and Melancholy, which may lead to Loss of Reason.

This new remedy for that fearful train of mental and physical evils arising from mental excesses, and secret habits of the young, is composed of the most soothing strengthening and invigorating medicines to be found in the whole Vegetable Kingdom, which, in combination, form the most perfect antidote for this obstinate and distressing class of maladies ever yet discovered.—It has now been sent to nearly every State in the Union, relieving the untold sufferings of hundreds who have never seen the inventor, restoring them to comparative health, strength and happiness. Price—Quart bottle, which lasts a month, $10; half size, $6.

These four GREAT REMEDIES are the result of over twenty years' study and practice, and as now prepared they are known to be the very best for their respective purposes, and I am therefore indeed to make them public for the mutual benefit of myself and the sick, who otherwise could never avail themselves of their benefits. They are all warranted as represented, in every respect, or the price will be refunded.

Prepared and sold ONLY at DR. MATTISON'S REMEDIAL INSTITUTE FOR SPECIAL DISEASES, near No. 28 Union street, Providence, R. I., and sent by express, secure from observation, to all parts of the United States.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

It has been estimated that over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars are paid to swindling quacks annually in New England alone; and that, too, without any benefit to those who pay it. All this comes from trusting, without inquiry, to men who are alike destitute of honor, character or skill and whose only recommendation is their own false and extravagant assertions in praise of themselves. The only way to avoid imposition is to take no man's word, no matter what his pretensions are, but MAKE INQUIRY. It will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in nine cases out of ten are knaves, there is no safety in trusting any of them unless you know who and what they are.

Dr. M. will send free, by enclosing one stamp as above, a Pamphlet on DISEASES OF WOMEN, and on Private Diseases generally; giving full information, with the most unbiased references and testimonials without which no advertising physician, or medicine of this kind is deserving of ANY CONFIDENCE WHATEVER.

Orders by mail promptly attended to. Write your address plainly, and direct to DR. MATTISON as above.

DYSPEPSIA & FITS.

A SURE CURE FOR THESE DISTRESSING COMPLAINTS IS NOW MADE KNOWN IN A

"Treatise on Foreign and Native Herbal Preparations."

Published by DR. O. PHELPS BROWN.

The prescription was furnished him in such a providential manner that he cannot conscientiously refuse to make it known, although he never was a believer in Clairvoyance, Spiritualism, Psalmyology, &c. This remarkable remedy has cured everybody who has tried it, never failing in a single case. It is equally sure in cases of Fits as of Dyspepsia; and the ingredients may be found in any drug store. Those who are afflicted with Consumption, Bronchitis, or Asthma, may also be cured by the use of my Herbal Preparations, which are charged with electro-magnetic properties, and an aura or aromatic atmosphere is continually emanating from them, in consequence of the positive and negative repulsion of its atomized electro-magnetical principles, thereby rendering their efficacy truly wonderful in all cases of Lung Complaints. I will send this valuable prescription free to any person on receipt of their name. Address Dr. O. PHELPS BROWN, No. 19 Grand street, Jersey City, N. J.

A CHALLENGE AND A REWARD.

$500 REWARD.

I beg leave to inform my friends and the community, that from recent arrangements made by me, I NOW offer the above reward in good faith, which shall be paid in cash to any chemist or physician, of good and responsible standing in the State, who, on due analysis and satisfactory evidence, can find anything in the BRANDIES, WINES, GINS, &c., &c., NOW for sale by me as pure, other than is found in all PURE, GENUINE and UNADULTERATED ARTICLES.

Knowing, from experience, that our citizens in general labor under the impression, with good cause, that pure liquors cannot be had, I, after much pains, studious investigation, and from the reliable source with whom I NOW contract for my supplies in these articles, do stake my reputation as a man, my integrity as a merchant, that if the liquors NOW sold by me as pure "are not so," then none can be had from the vineyards in France, or from any part of the world. As a proof of my sincerity, I challenge chemical contradiction, and invite all to come and test for themselves, when they will learn that NOW, "if never before," pure liquors can be purchased in Newport, by bottle or measure, for medicinal or family purposes, and as cheap as in any other place in the United States.

WM. ALDERSON, Newport, R. I.

N. B.—The main inducement for all to give me a call is, that my figure for the genuine article is rather less, than more, than is NOW charged for the land-some labeled bottled compounds so extensively sold all over country. Mch 30 1y

CURE THAT COUGH OF YOURS.

Use the best, Surest, and cheapest Remedy the world has ever produced.

ONLY 13 & 25 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S

GREAT COUGH REMEDY.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S Curative Balsam is warranted if used according to the directions, to cure in all cases, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Coughs, Asthma, and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S BALSAM is prepared with all the requisite care and skill, from a combination of the best remedies the vegetable kingdom affords. Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of the blood, through the lungs. It is not a violent remedy, but a gentle, warming, searching and effective; can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S BALSAM has been used by the public for over 18 years, and has acquired its present sale simply by being recommended by those who have used it, to their afflicted friends and others.

MOST IMPORTANT.—MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM is sold at a price which brings it in the reach of every one to keep it convenient for use. The timely use of a single bottle will prove to be worth 100 times its cost.

NOTICE.—SAVE YOUR MONEY!!!—Do not be persuaded to purchase articles at 50 cts. or $1, which do not contain the virtues of a 25 ct. Bottle of Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, the cost of manufacturing which is as great as that of almost any other medicine; and the very low price at which it is sold, ruins the profit to the seller apparently small, and unprincipled dealers will sometimes recommend other medicines on which their profits are larger, unless the customers insist upon having Madame Porter's and none other. Ask for Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, price 25 cts., and large bottles at 75 cts., and take no other. If you cannot get it at one store you can at another.

☞ Sold by all Druggists and Storekeepers at 13 cts. and in larger bottles at 25 cts.
